Doctor Profile

Gastroenterology

Dr Carolyn Quan

MBBS, FRACP, PhD

Dr Carolyn Quan is an experienced Consultant Gastroenterologist with a keen interest in Women's Digestive Health. She is dedicated and has a gentle approach and understanding when managing her patients with Functional Gut Disorders, Food intolerances and Coeliac disease.

She graduated from University of Melbourne and trained at St Vincent's Hospital. She completed her advanced training in gastroenterology at Royal Prince Alfred hospital, in Sydney, followed by a PhD with Professor Nicholas Talley at the University of Sydney. She is affiliated with RACP and GESA, and supports the National Bowel Cancer Screening Program.

With many years of experience in both public and private hospital systems, Carolyn consults patients with all gastrointestinal symptoms. She performs both gastroscopies and colonoscopies and has maintained her expertise with ongoing Colonoscopy Recertification.

She is looking forward to building a strong relationship between her patients and their practitioners whilst establishing her private practice in Eastern and South- Eastern suburbs.
