

Request for Information

Information for Applicants

Access to an individual's medical records may be requested in accordance with the Health Records Act 2001 (VIC). All requests must be received in writing using the attached Request for Information form together with any required photographic identification. Where a requestor is seeking access to another person's medical record, proof of authority will be required (see form for further details).

How to Make a Request

Complete the attached Request for Information form in full. The request must include the patient's full name and date of birth along with photocopies of the proof of identification document specified below.

Proof of Identification Required

Under the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic), we may request evidence of the applicant's identity. If the request is for another person's medical record, we will require evidence of the applicant's authority to make the request on the patient's behalf.

All medical record requests must include photocopies of identification / evidence of authority as listed below:

Where requesting your own medical record

1. A photocopy of your Australian Driver's License or Australian Passport, OR two forms of identification (at least one of which is photographic identification)

Where requesting the medical record of another person

1. A photocopy of your Australian Driver's License or Australian Passport, OR two forms of identification (at least one of which is photographic identification) and
2. A photocopy of evidence to show the applicant is an authorised representative of the patient (e.g. Executor Grant of Probate / Letter of Administration, Guardianship Order, Medical Enduring Power of Attorney, Appointment of Medical Decision Maker / Support Person, Child's Birth Certificate)

Where requesting the medical record of a deceased person

1. A photocopy of your Australian Driver's License or Australian Passport, OR two forms of identification (at least one of which is photographic identification) and
2. A photocopy of evidence to show the applicant is the legal representative of the deceased in the form of the Grant of Probate or Letter of Administration
