Mr Frank Chen

MBBS, FRACS

LANGUAGES: Mandarin, Cantonese

Mr Frank Chen is a colorectal surgeon and endoscopist. He trained at St. Vincent's Hospital in Sydney and attained his fellowship of the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons in 1993. He completed further colorectal surgical training both in Australia and at the prestigious Cleveland Clinic Foundation, becoming a member of the Colorectal Surgical Society of Australia and New Zealand in 1996.

He is a consultant at both Eastern Health and in private practice. Frank's previous appointments at Eastern Health included: Head of Colorectal Surgery, Supervisor of Colorectal Training, Director of the Anorectal Physiology Laboratory, Chair of the Colorectal Cancer Multidisciplinary Meetings. He has served on the AVANT Medical Experts Committee over 12 years, the last three as Chair.

In 2016, he won the Best Doctors award as judged by his peers. He is well published, has presented at local and international meetings and continues to maintain a busy and engaged clinical practice.

Outside of work, Frank remains a diehard ski buff, a cyclist and a golfer. He collects and distributes used cricket gear to underprivileged junior cricketers in Sri Lanka.
