Doctor Profile

ENT/Otolaryngology/ Head & Neck Surgery

Mr Stewart Lee

MBBS, FRACS

Mr Stewart Lee completed his undergraduate medical training at The University of London in 1994. He then undertook training in a wide range of medical and surgical areas in the UK and Melbourne.

He undertook his Ear, Nose and Throat, Head and Neck Surgery training in Melbourne during the period 2002-2006. He is a fully qualified and certified member of the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons, having passed the FRACS exam in 2005. His qualifications also include Fellowships from the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh and England.

From 2006-20088, he undertook highly prestigious subspecialty Clinical Fellowships in London, under the guidance of world-renowned surgeons at Charing Cross Hospital, Royal National Throat, Nose and Ear Hospital and Guys and St Thomas' Hospitals.

During these years he gained further experience in functional and cosmetic rhinoplasty and endoscopic surgery of the sinuses and skull base, which form his main sub-specialty areas of interest. He also gained further experience in surgery of the head and neck, snoring and voice disorders. His practice encompasses general adult and paediatric ENT.

He consults privately at Belmore Specialist Centre, North Balwyn. He also has off-site consulting in Eltham and Knox. He also has public hospital appointments at Austin Health and Box Hill Hospital.

Areas of interest:

- General adult and paediatric ENT
- Complex sinus and skull base disorders
- Rhinoplasty
